

Brooklyn - 25 March

We met at McDonalds Thornleigh, grabbing a coffee while waiting for all to arrive. There were 7 from our Club at this point: Graeme Gould, Bob Gilliland, Alan Bourne, David Nunn, Les Whale, and Kerry & Marian Jones in their stunning Traveller, and about the same number from the Picnic Club. We set off soon after 9.00am, up Pennant Hills Road and onto the M1 freeway.

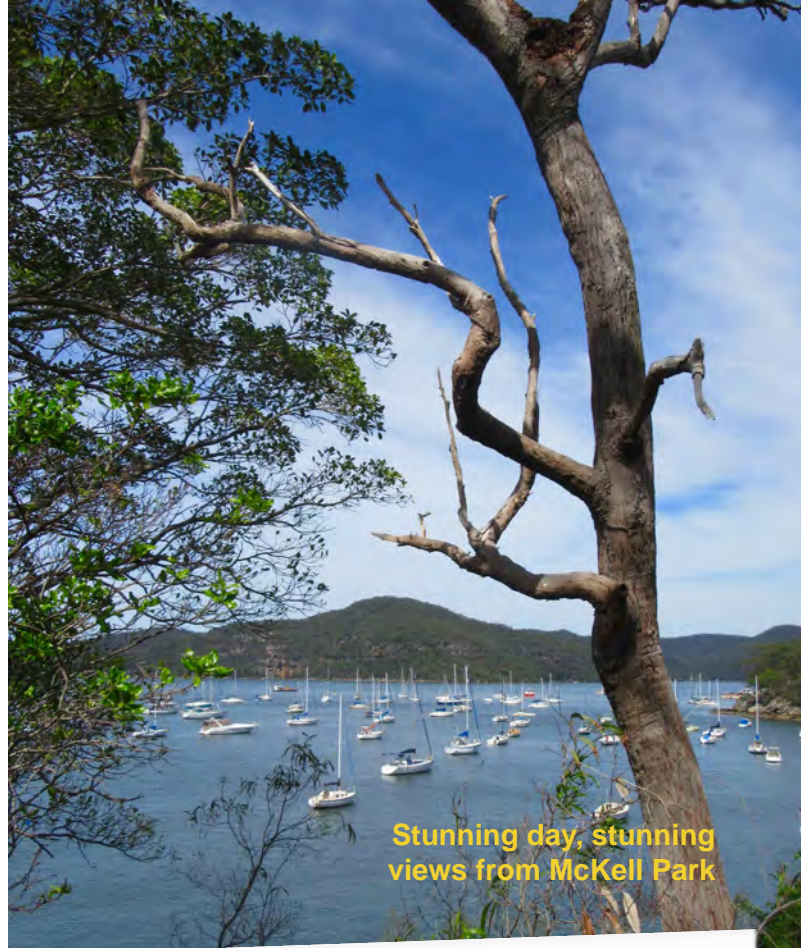

A good fast run had us crossing the Hawkesbury to Mooney Mooney in quick time, where we doubled back across the old Pacific Highway bridge and around to Brooklyn. There we were met by Malcolm Wood, who had driven down from Berowra in his ute.

Finding the way up to McKell Park, we parked up in two lines on opposite sides of the small parking area. We grabbed a couple of shelter sheds with table and bench seats, and after the usual car discussions and inspections, we enjoyed some morning tea together. The day was warm and sunny, and there were some beautiful views across Broken Bay from the high position of the park.

As time rolled on, we took the long way around, down and along the water's edge to the fish and chip kiosk, where we each bought our chosen fare for lunch, which we ate back at the park. It was very yummy! By early afternoon we packed up and headed off home, up the old Pacific Highway via Cowan and Berowra. A good run for our Morris and a very pleasant day out.

Cheers,
Les Whale

Stunning day, stunning views from McKell Park
