

Sydney Report

Hello fellow Morris Minorists...

Did somebody say lockdown... still? Or did somebody say Groundhog Day? Well it certainly feels like it to me...

We are still stuck in another lockdown, and living in the 'area of concern' that I do, being Canterbury-Bankstown LGA, I have not been past my front gates since... I really can't remember when!

The novelty of working from home soon wore off too, I thought it would be great at the start, but a few weeks in and I was well and truly over it. Add to that home learning for my boys and not seeming to be able to find any time to work on my car, the end to this craziness is certainly looked forward to in this household.

On-line shopping has been somewhat of a highlight for me, from waiting days to receive my printer ink from Officeworks, to the truly amazing BWS deliveries that I somehow am able to receive within an hour of ordering.

Outings: I say again with more hope than last time, hopefully some restrictions will be eased soon so that we can get together (somewhat restrictively) and enjoy some time together over the coming months.

There are a few outings planned:

Nov 7, Sun - Anniversary Run to Burragorang Lookout (no, not Warragamba Dam, the lookout over Lake Burragorang, near Oakdale and The Oaks, west from Camden).

Nov 14, Sun - Our MMCCNSW Annual Show-n-Shine, to be held in the pleasant and spacious surroundings of Cataract Dam Picnic Area. See the details elsewhere in this magazine.

For obvious COVID-19-related reasons, bookings must be made, so if you intend to go to one of these outings, then you must let me know, by phone and/or email, as numbers may be limited.

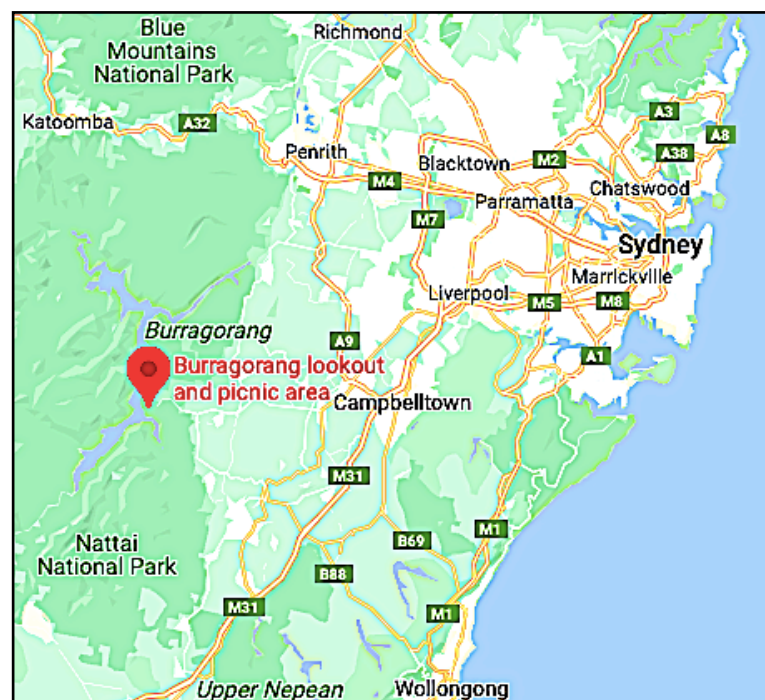

With all of us locked down, there has obviously been nothing to report on outings-wise since the last magazine.

The Mudgee weekend that was scheduled for 3rd-5th September had to be cancelled, but the good news is that it's back on. Set for the last weekend in September 2022 (Friday 23rd - Sunday 25th September 2022) - please let John Ballard or I know if you're interested in going, accommodation might be limited as it is a very popular town that is sure to book out fast.

My car: Nothing to update on my car sadly. I keep dreaming about driving it again though, and I've been watching a guy from the UK on YouTube that has been doing a Morrie up over the last few years which is kinda motivating. Now that the days are warmer and daylight saving is soon to hit us, I'm hoping to be able to spend some quality time out there and working hard.

Regalia: Nothing new to report here but let me know if there's anything that you need in preparation for the end of the lockdown.

Cheers,
David
