Sir Rom Wins the Dakar Rally!

Yes, you read correctly, folks, I competed in the 2023 Dakar Rally, which took place in Saudi Arabia between 31 Dec and 15 Jan 2023 - in the new, not well-known and very secretive classic/modern multi-vehicle section. And because I am an honest and very modest person (hey, what Morris owner isn't?), I can tell you that I finished in 1st place! 1st place!!! How good is that, woohoo! Pictured are a couple of the vehicles I piloted in the rally - can you imagine a Fiat lol? No Morris Minors, unfortunately, but my contacts assure me that a Morrie will definitely be on the starting grid in 2024; I can hardly wait.

Cheers,
Sir Rom

Dac dac (above) and Citroen (below) proved sooo easy to handle for Sir Rom's driving ability

Tatra and Toyota??? No worries!

Porsche, smooth!

A Fiat! In the Dakar Rally? No problem for Sir Rom - he even missed that big rock!

Oops! But I still finished 1st :)))
